

CRAWFORD SCHOOL ORATION

The Crawford School Oration is presented by prominent leaders of academia, government and business. The topics of the Oration focus on current global public policy challenges or concerns.

Professor Joseph Stiglitz Road to Ruin? Financial Instability and the Global Economy

Tuesday 3 August
4.30pm
Llewellyn Hall, ANU

The inaugural Crawford School Oration will be presented by American economic commentator and Nobel Prize Laureate for Economics 2001, Professor Joseph Stiglitz.

One of the world's best known economists, Professor Stiglitz is the former Chief Economist of the World Bank and former Chair of Bill Clinton's Council of Economic Advisors. Professor Stiglitz's contributions to macroeconomics, monetary theory, development economics, trade theory, public and corporate finance, welfare economics and income wealth distribution are renowned.

Don't miss the opportunity to hear a leading economist in an open forum.

For more information visit

<http://www.crawford.anu.edu.au/news/oration.php>

Registration is essential. To register for this event, email crawford.events@anu.edu.au

This oration is a Trevor Swan Distinguished Lecture in Economics

Prof Stiglitz is touring Australia as the inaugural speaker of the Economic Society of Australia Eminent Speaker Series.

The Economic Society of Australia Eminent Speaker Series is proudly supported by PricewaterhouseCoopers and QANTAS.

