

CHINA 2008 UPDATE

Confronting Global Challenges:
Growth, the Environment and Rebalancing World Power

CRAWFORD SCHOOL

Australian Government
AusAID

Monday 14 July John Curtin Medical School, Australian National University

8.00–8.45 Registration

09.00–09.10 OPENING ADDRESS:

Martin Parkinson—Secretary of the Department of Climate Change

09.10–09.40 KEYNOTE ADDRESS:

Confronting global challenges
Jeffrey Sachs—Columbia University

09.40–10.40 PANEL ON GLOBAL CHALLENGES—CHAIRER BY ROSS GARNAUT

Jeffrey Sachs—Columbia University
Fan Gang—National Economy Research Institute
Wing Thyee Woo—Brookings Institution
Richard Rigby—Australian National University

10.40–11.00 Morning tea

11.00–12.00 SESSION 1—ECONOMIC GROWTH—CHAIRER BY LIGANG SONG

Will China fall into stagflation?
Yiping Huang—Citigroup and Australian National University

US and European financial shocks: implications for Chinese economic performance
Rod Tyers—Australian National University

Production fragmentation and the China—US trade imbalance
Prema-Chandra Athukorala—Australian National University

The driving force for economic growth: rural-urban migration
Sherry Tao Kong—Australian National University

Rethinking thirty years of reform in China
Xiaolu Wang—National Economy Research Institute

12.00–13.00 PANEL ON THE US/CHINA RELATIONSHIP—CHAIRER BY ROSS GARNAUT

Fan Gang—National Economy Research Institute
Wing Thyee Woo—Brookings Institution
Hugh White—Australian National University
Jeffrey Bader—Brookings Institution

Monday 14 July cont. John Curtin Medical School, Australian National University

13.00–14.00 Lunch

14.00–14.50 SESSION 2—ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACTS—CHAIRER BY JANE GOLLEY

China's environmental Kuznets curve and its policy implications
Du Yang—Chinese Academy of Social Sciences

The environmental consequence of FDI in China
Bao Qun—Nankai University

Restructuring China's steel industry and implications for the environment
Ligang Song—Australian National University

The impact of air pollution on mortality in China
Zhongwei Zhao—Australian National University

14.50–15.30 SESSION 3—ENERGY AND GHG EMISSIONS—CHAIRER BY YIPING HUANG

Chinese urban household energy requirements and CO2 emissions
Jane Golley—Australian National University

Can China's coal industry be reconciled with the environment?
Xunpeng Shi—Australian National University

China's rapid emissions growth and global climate change policy
Frank Jotzo—Australian National University

15.30–16.00 Afternoon tea

16.00–16.45 SESSION 4—CHINA'S ENVIRONMENTAL CHALLENGES—CHAIRER BY WING THYEE WOO

Warwick McKibbin—Australian National University
Will Steffen—Australian National University
Peter Sheehan—Victoria University

16.45–17.15 Concluding Remarks

Ross Garnaut—Australian National University