

RMAP BULLETIN 8 APRIL 2004

SEMINARS OF INTEREST

The Orang Asli and Indigenous Land Rights Issues in Peninsular Malaysia

Robert Aiken, Professor, Dpt. Geography, Concordia University, Montreal, VF RMAP Program
Date & Time: Thursday 15 April, 11.30-12.30pm
Venue: Seminar Room D, Coombs Building, ANU
(RMAP Seminar)

WWF Experience with Economic Instruments in Natural Resource Management"

Warwick Moss, Economic Policy Officer for WWF Australia
Date & Time: Monday, 3rd May, 1.00-2.00 pm
Venue: Seminar Room 1, 2nd floor, J.G. Crawford Building, NCDS
(APSEG Seminar)

Informality in Mineral Resource Management: Community Economies in Mineral-Rich Tracts of Developing Countries

Kuntala Lahiri-Dutt, Research Fellow, RMAP Program
Date & Time: Thursday 6 May, 12.30-1.30pm
Venue: Seminar Room C, Coombs Building, ANU
(RMAP Seminar)

RECENT ADDITIONS TO RMAP WEBSITE

Working Papers

<http://rspas.anu.edu.au/rmap/workingpapers.php>

Martin, K. 2004. Land, custom and conflict in East New Britain. Australian National University, RSPAS, RMAP Program (Working Paper No. 53).

OTHER USEFUL TEXT ONLINE

Environmental Rights: Human Rights Dialogue is published by the Carnegie Council on Ethics and International Affairs. The issue on 'Environmental Rights' is due to be released on May 1. It will be available on their website <http://www.cceia.org/listpublications.php/prmPubTypeID/39>

OTHER NEWS

The European Commission has just launched a new website for the combined tropical forests and environment budget lines. It includes information on previously funded projects; a page on 'who does what' ie the role of different EC directorates; procedures; links to relevant official documents; and more. http://europa.eu.int/comm/europeaid/projects/forests/index_en.htm