

RMAP BULLETIN 21 MAY 2004

SEMINARS OF INTEREST

Monday 24 May

Resources for people: social research to support natural resource management

HEATHER J. ASLIN

Senior Scientist, Social Sciences Program, Bureau of Rural Sciences

1.00-2.00 pm, Seminar Room 1

2nd floor, J.G. Crawford Building, NCDS

FORTHCOMING WORKSHOPS/CONFERENCES

Workshop on THE PRECAUTIONARY PRINCIPLE IN NATURAL RESOURCE MANAGEMENT AND BIODIVERSITY CONSERVATION, Fourth Asia Regional Session of the Global Biodiversity Forum

Manila, The Philippines, 21-23 June. See announcement, workshop details and registration at http://www.gbf.ch/present_session.asp?no=38&lg=EN.

TEXT ONLINE

People interested in the thinking of Bjorn Lomborg and his various associates might be interested to read the various papers contributed in preparation for the 'Copenhagen Consensus' meeting on 24-28 May.. These can be located at <http://www.copenhagenconsensus.com/>