This panel explores what the new aid landscape means for those on the receiving end of aid. Speakers will discuss how the development/aid landscape in their countries has changed over the years, the opportunities and challenges new modalities and diverse partnerships offer, and how partner governments are managing this new situation in terms of public financial management, aid coordination, public perceptions and expectations.

The three speakers will discuss:

> Managing diversity: the changing aid and development landscape in Timor Leste
Mr Fidelis Manuel Leite Magalhães, Chief of Staff to the President of Timor Leste

> Changing aid landscape and Cambodia's future development agenda
Mr Heng Chou, Director General of the Department of Policy and Development Assistance Coordination, Council for Development of Cambodia

> Aid to Laos
Dr Phanthanousone (Pepe) Khennavong, Technical National Consultant for the National Round Table Process in Laos, Department of International Cooperation, Lao Government

Ms Anthea Mulakala, Director for International Development Cooperation at The Asia Foundation, will act as chair.
