On Tuesday 11 May 2021, the Treasurer Josh Frydenberg will hand down the 2021-22 Federal Budget. What will it mean for foreign aid? Will there be further aid increases? If there are, how will they be presented? And where and how will they be targeted?

Join the Development Policy Centre for its ninth (and second virtual) aid budget breakfast. Professor Stephen Howes will bring you the latest analysis from Devpol on what the aid budget means for Australia, for the region and for the development sector.

This webinar is free and open to the public. It will be recorded, and the recording will be made available after the event through the Development Policy Centre website (<https://devpolicy.crawford.anu.edu.au/>).
