2023 aid budget breakfast

Wednesday 10 May 9–10am

Against the backdrop of the global “polycrisis”, the Albanese government is drawing up a new international development policy, a review of Australia’s approach to development finance, and a ten-year capability plan for DFAT. What might this all mean for Australian aid as the Treasurer hands down the 2023-24 Federal Budget on Tuesday 9 May?

Join the Development Policy Centre (Devpol) for a virtual aid budget breakfast. The Devpol team will bring you the latest analysis on Australia’s aid budget, aid policy and performance, and the global aid outlook.

This seminar is free and open to the public. The recording will be available after the event on the Devpol website (<https://devpolicy.crawford.anu.edu.au/>).
